

D. B.CIVIL SEPCIAL APPEAL (W) NO.531/2006
(CHANDERJEET V. THE STATE OF RAJ. & OTHERS)

DATE OF ORDER: :::: 26-04-2007

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH BALIA
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE BHANWAROO KHAN

Mr. Mahaveer Bishnoi, for appellant.

Having heard learned counsel for the appellant, we are in agreement with the learned Single Judge that no interference in the quantum of award of punishment of a member of the Police service can be made when he was found remaining absent from duty time and again without informing and he has become a habitual absentee.

The sole contention raised before the learned Single Judge was about the quantum of punishment imposed upon him, i.e., of removal from service, which is disproportionate to the delinquency for which he was found guilty.

Suffice it to say that if a member of the discipline force like Police responsible for maintenance of law and order remains absent in such a cavalier fashion without informing the concerned authority, then the punishment of removal from service cannot be said to be disproportionate to the delinquency for which he was found guilty.

The appeal fails and is hereby dismissed.
